

ACCREDITATION
CANADA
Current Accreditor

Total $16,525 + HST

Accredits Hospitals, Public Health, Social/Community Services

- 7 Community Health Centres (Niagara Falls, Northumberland, Unison Health, Gateway, Scarborough, Timmins, Kawartha Lakes)
- Accredited Gateway in 2012, 2016, scheduled 2020 deferred to January 2022

“Together with our affiliate Health Standards Organization, Accreditation Canada inspires people to make positive change that improves the quality of health and social services in Canada and around the world.”

Standards: Governance, Leadership, Primary Care, Medication Management, Infection Prevention & Control (IPAC)

- Not applicable standards: Community Health Standards, Standards related to Hospital/LTC/Pharmacy within Medication Management & IPAC

CANADIAN CENTRE FOR ACCREDITATION

Estimate $15,620 + HST

Accredit community-based health and social services

Over 60+ Community Health Centres accredited with CCA

“Through our holistic and responsive approach CCA ensures that the accreditation process is more than a formality. It’s a path to growth. Because when local health and social service providers thrive, not only are they better positioned to help those they serve, Canadian communities, thrive too.”

Organizational Standards:

Organizational Foundations, Board Governance, Quality, Risk Management and Performance, Knowledge and Learning, Program and Service Approach, Relationships with Community, Stewardship and Financial Management, Human Resources, Volunteers and Students, Information Management

Community-Based Primary Health Care Standards:

Community-Based Approach - Services guided by population based-approach including equity, health promotion

Delivery of Quality Programs and Services: Processes, policies and procedures for strength-based person centred care including assessment, planning for care, access, inter-professional teams, continuity of care, coordination of services, prevention, health education, quality improvement
Service Safety (Processes, policies and procedures for safety for clients and staff, infection prevention and control, information management, medication handling)